Aloha Tammy,

It is hard to believe that a new year is already upon us! It seems as though the fall holidays passed so quickly this year.

As always, the Kauai Independent Food Bank (KIFB) remains profoundly grateful for the many years of support that the Laurence H. Dorcy Foundation has provided to assist us in achieving our mission "To Educate, Provide Nutritious Foods for the Hungry, and Respond to Emergencies". Thus, we humbly request that you would consider our attached application for a general operating support grant in 2025.

In addition to our application, we have included the following requested documents:

- IRS 501 (c) (3) Determination Letter
- Form 990- 2023
- Primary Funding Sources

Thank you so much for your consideration of our application. We are so grateful that the Laurence H. Dorcy Hawaiian Foundation has been such a faithful, generous partner in our kuleana, our responsibility, to care for the hungry people right here on Kauai. Together, we are working to end food insecurity for our people; from keiki to kupuna, and everyone in between, no one is ever turned away empty-handed at KIFB. Mahalo nui loa for helping us make that happen every day.

If you have any questions or need further information, please do not hesitate to reach out.

2025 Grant Application

Aloha Tammy and the Laurence H. Dorcy Hawaiian Foundation 'Ohana. The Kauai Independent Food Bank (KIFB) would like to submit this application for consideration for a 2025 grant from the Laurence H. Dorcy Hawaiian Foundation. We are so thankful for the many years of support the Foundation has provided to KIFB. We do not take it for granted, and know that we could not do what we do without you, and our generous grantors.

Formed in 1992 as a grassroots response to devastating Hurricane Iniki, KIFB, now with 32 years of service to our Kaua'i community, continues with our mission, "To Educate, Provide Nutritious Food for the Hungry, and Respond to Emergencies". Our geographic region is the islands of Kaua'i and Ni'ihau, home to 73,000 + residents. KIFB distributed over 300,000 pounds of food in 2024, and expect that our distributions will continue to increase throughout the coming year. Rapidly rising food costs as well as the high cost of living in Kaua'i have resulted, as expected, in an increase in requests for food resources here on our island home. Kaua'i, like many areas, is also experiencing an increase in our houseless population, often local people who just cannot afford the astronomical housing costs here. Included in this houseless population are many families with keiki.

We are proud to report that no one is ever turned away empty-handed; all who are in need of food receive it. From keiki to kupuna, and everyone in between, we believe it is our kuleana, our responsibility, to work to eliminate food insecurity.

The most recent statistics available report that over 12% of the population in Kaua'i County is food insecure; that number rises drastically with keiki (children). Twenty percent, or nearly 1 in 5 keiki are food insecure on any given day in Kaua'i (Feeding America, 2022). The programs at KIFB exist to meet the food needs in our community with a goal of eliminating food insecurity on our island.

Keiki Café supports academic achievement by providing nutritious, kid-friendly snacks every day to more than 600 keiki enrolled in after-school programs island-wide.

The Backpack Program was started almost twenty years ago in response to staff at our Keiki Café locations noting keiki stocking up on snacks on Fridays to provide for the weekends when school-provided lunches and our snacks were not available. Today, more than 500 keiki receive weekly bags with ingredients for 5 to 7 weekend meals and snacks. Well over 90% of our Backpack recipients are of Native Hawaiian descent. While all keiki are eligible to participate, this does allow us to provide for a categorically underserved demographic in Hawaii.

The Kupuna Program exists as a partnership with the County of Kaua'i and the RSVP (Retired Senior Volunteer Program) to home-deliver monthly food boxes to supplement food supplies for homebound seniors. KIFB includes locally sourced proteins, produce, and culturally preferred food selections to our kupuna participating in the program. 200+ kupuna are currently enrolled in the program.

Emergency Food Distributions occur daily from our warehouse in Nawiliwili upon request by clients. On the second and fourth Wednesdays of every month, KIFB also holds free community food distributions at our warehouse. Clients are invited to come select from a variety of foods, including proteins, poi, lap chong, locally-sourced produce, and shelf-stable items (offerings vary at each distribution). On average, KIFB distributes 23,000 pounds of emergency food each month, not including our special distributions (i.e., Holiday, Veterans).

KIFB has a small, incredibly hardworking staff with a passion to serve the community.

Executive Director, Kelvin A. Moniz, Kauai-born and a U.S. Army veteran, has more than 40 years in responding to emergencies and assisting the community in times of need-in both his military and civilian careers. Kelvin has been with KIFB for 25 years and oversees the entire operation of the organization. With deep roots in the community and in Hawaii at large, Kelvin has amazing networking skills bringing people together to work cohesively to eliminate hunger and food insecurity on Kauai.

Barbara Almeida is our Controller. Barbara has over thirty years in the finance world, and almost two decades specifically involved with non-profits. She is intricately involved with overseeing all income and expenditures, and ensures that KIFB is compliant with all financial rules, regulations, and documentation for the food bank.

Rizaldy Tolentino is our warehouse manager. His many duties include overseeing our warehouse staff, procuring and delivering food to our programs and participating agencies, and coordination of volunteers.

Ammon Kakazu works tirelessly in our warehouse, receiving and shelving thousands of pounds of food each month. He responds to emergency requests by assembling food packages on-demand, as well as packs foods for our Keiki Café, Backpack, and Kupuna Programs. Ammon also works side-by-side with our many volunteers to teach them the assembly process of our emergency, Keiki Café, Backpack, and Kupuna food kits.

Our Development Coordinator, Jennifer Harper, writes all grants for KIFB as well as seeking fund-raising opportunities throughout the year. She manages KIFB social media sites (Instagram and Facebook) to keep both our clients and donors/grantors informed about the latest happenings at the food bank. Jennifer works with our executive director in community outreach, encouraging local organizations to get involved with food drives, fund raising campaigns, and organization visibility.

KIFB maintains diligent record-keeping to measure the success of our programs and services to ensure all objectives are met, and funds are spent according to the specific guidelines and requirements set forth by each grantor/contributor. An outside accounting agency audits all KIFB financials annually. KIFB has a reputation both in Kauai, and the non-profit sector for integrity, transparency, and service to the community.

The mission of KIFB is to “Educate, Provide Nutritious Food for the Hungry, and Respond to Emergencies. We know the mission, goals and vision of KIFB align with the priorities of the Laurance H. Dorcy Foundation, improving the quality of life for the residents of Hawaii. The Foundation's contributions have benefitted thousands of Kaua'i and Ni'ihau residents over the years. KIFB is focusing on increasing our partnerships with local farmers and agriculture purveyors to distribute to our clients and reduce our reliance on shelf-stable items. Shelf-stable items will always be needed, however, as we do have clients that do not have the ability to store and prepare fresh foods. Our goal is to distribute healthier, more nutrient-dense foods each year.

KIFB's programs continue to expand with the increased demands from our community. In summer of 2024, our Keiki Café and Backpack Programs both went to year-round status, meaning that keiki in need of food resources continued to be served even during school breaks, when low- and no-cost lunches and snacks were not available to them. The Laurence H. Dorcy Hawaiian Foundation has been an integral part of our ability to serve every client in need of food without exception. Mahalo!

A generous grant from the Laurence H. Dorcy Hawaiian Foundation for $20,000 will continue to support our four core programs and operations described previously. KIFB is profoundly grateful for your history of supporting our endeavors and sharing in our vision that no one should ever go to bed hungry on Kaua'i.

Mahalo nui loa for your time and consideration of our request.

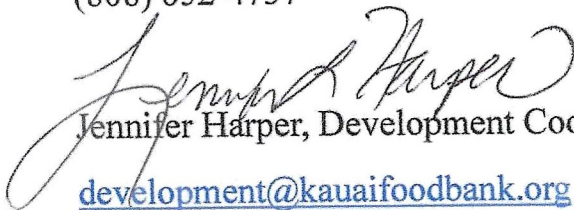

With gratitude,

Kelvin A. Moniz, Executive Director
